

5.2 Disposal of Withdrawn Materials

For the most part, materials withdrawn from the collection are simply trashed.

Occasionally, materials with some residual value will first be offered to Member Libraries or other libraries in the area. (This is especially true of superseded reference books and "Hot Titles") and then to the Friends of the Library.

We do not offer withdrawn materials directly to the public.

Reviewed January 2003.