

5.3 Access to Materials Based on Age

As it is contrary to the Library's primary function of providing access to library media by individuals regardless of age, race, religion, national origin, or social political views, the Library cannot and will not establish or enforce any barrier to the materials in its collection based solely on the age of the patron.

Reviewed January 2003.